

ANNUAL REPORT

For the year ended 30 June 2023

SAFEGUARDING YOUR REDUNDANCY BENEFITS

Good news – eligible members will receive a distribution this year as the investment market has improved after the COVID-19 pandemic. The total distribution to members will be $2 million. MERT is one of only two funds that distribute an annual payment to members when investment returns allow, which has been the majority of years.

With this annual report you will receive a statement detailing your employer contributions during the past twelve months. However, in-between statements members can easily access their account details and contribution history from the MERT website or the MERT App. The MERT website featuring member access is available at www.mert.com.au. There is also information in the annual report about using this website.

Directors' Message 2022/2023

MERT was formed some 34 years ago as a joint employer body/union initiative to deal with the on-site construction industry issues of the day. All these years later MERT is still very strong and fulfilling the aims of the founding bodies. The directors have had a focus on MERT's role as being a redundancy fund with security of assets as its prime target which ensures that your contributions are not depleted when the time comes for your claim.

Up front, the good news is that eligible members will receive a distribution this year as the investment market has improved after the COVID-19 pandemic. The total distribution to members will be $2 million. MERT is one of only two funds that distribute an annual payment to members when investment returns allow which has been the majority of years.

Like superannuation funds that work on trying to increase their membership/clients by poaching from other funds, redundancy/severance funds are no different. During the past year, there has been a movement between redundancy/severance funds. MERT's almost unique selling point is that we distribute cash to members in most years. The abridged accounts for the year ended 31 July 2023 are included in this Annual Report and membership stood at some 17,000 at year end.

Members are reminded that the MERT members App is available on both the Apple and Android platforms so that you can check account balances and other details.

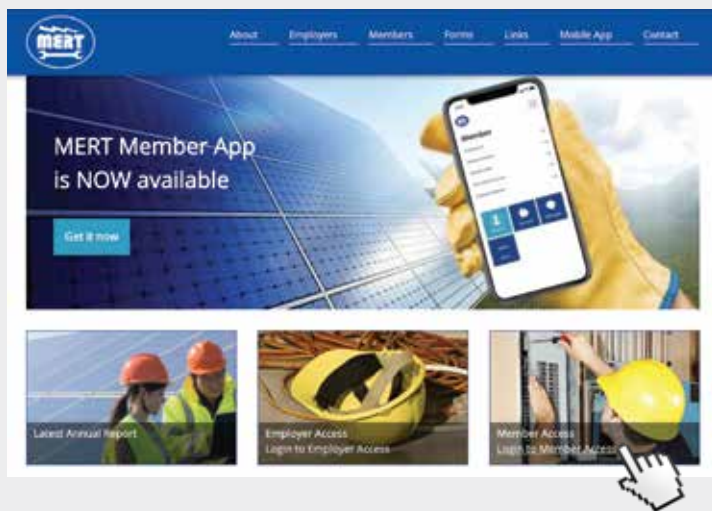

Whilst construction growth is steady in Australia, the main restriction on growth is a lack of trades and some poor planning by the government on every level with massive cost blowouts. Unsustainable budgets and (far) too short timelines are the main culprits. The much-needed Housing Australia Future Fund which is a $10 billion investment fund the government has created, will put further pressure on materials and tradespeople shortages.

The MERT directors continue to represent the interests of members and ensure that investments are appropriate to protect their redundancy benefits. A list of directors is available at the end of this annual report. These directors understand the building construction industry and are now committed to their role.

Claiming your benefit

The fastest way to claim your redundancy benefit is online through MemberAccess or through the MERT Mobile App.

Simply click on 'Online Claims' and fill out the details according to the prompts. You can select to have the benefit paid via electronic funds transfer (EFT). You can also check the status of your claim online.

Alternatively, you can download the paper claim form from www.mert.com.au or request a copy of this form by calling 1800 023 692, but this claims process takes a bit longer than online.

How to claim your benefit

If you are made redundant or you terminate your employment you can claim your account balance by completing a member benefit claim form and having your last employer complete Section A and provide a copy of a third party termination advice, e.g. separation certificate. You can also choose whether to receive your benefit by the way of cheque, electronic funds transfer or rollover to a redundancy fund of your choice. (subject to the condition outlined below)

When benefits are payable to you

The requirement is for you to claim your redundancy payment within 12 months of termination of your last employer to qualify for concessional tax treatment.

Generally if you claim your benefit outside the above criteria, your payment will be taxed as ordinary income at your marginal tax rates rather than at concessional tax rates. There are limited circumstances in which the 12 month rule does not apply. Please refer to www.ato.gov.au for more information.

Please note: The concessional tax rate limit is indexed each year. If you are entitled to significant redundancy benefits you should consider seeking financial advice before payment.

Death

In the event of your death, your account balance will be paid to your nominated beneficiary or legal representatives. Documentation required to make a claim will include, as relevant:

- a completed deceased member claim form,
- marriage certificate or proof of dependency,
- copy of your birth certificate or drivers licence,
- death certificate,
- along with a copy of your Will or letters of administration.

MERT members' accounts

When you join MERT, an account is opened, providing you with an individual membership number. The following transactions are recorded into your account:

(+) Credits to your account

Contributions

You the employee are not required to pay anything. Your employer will pay on your behalf an amount as provided for within an enterprise agreement or other industrial instrument. This amount offsets the award redundancy entitlement.

Transfers in (rollovers)

Any amount you transfer or rollover into the trust from other redundancy plans.

(-) Debits to your account

Charges

No charges are deducted from your account. The cost of operating the trust is deducted from investment income, which includes all fees, administration charges, directors costs, custodian, legal, accounting and audit fees.

Understanding your statement

Twice a year you will receive a personal statement of your account. The statement for the period ended 30 June provides a listing of transactions for the previous 12 months, and the one ended 31 December provides details of transactions for the previous six months. The following information should assist you to understand your benefits and the contents of your statement.

1. Reporting period

The information on your annual statement covers the 12 month period from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023. Anything that affected your account after 30 June 2023 will be shown on next years statement.

2. Enquiries telephone number

This is the number to use between 8.00am and 7.00pm (EST) to make enquiries.

3. Membership number

This is your fund membership number, which you should quote whenever you phone or write to MERT Administration. This will assist the administrator to quickly trace your details in the computer.

4. Tax File Number

If you advise MERT of your Tax File Number it will show provided. If you haven't, it will show Not Advised.

5. Beneficiary(ies)

These are your preferred dependent beneficiary(ies) whom you wish to receive your benefits in the event of your death. The final decision as to who receives your benefit rests with the Trustee.

If you have no dependants (as defined), you should nominate your estate and ensure you have an up to date Will. You can update your nomination of beneficiary(ies) in writing to MERT Administration at any time.

Note: Where you have dependants and have made a Will you may wish to have the nominated beneficiary(ies) recorded with MERT consistent with those stated in your Will.

6. Withdrawal benefit your account balance

Your withdrawal benefit is the balance of your account. This is the amount that you would be paid (less tax) if you were to claim your benefit. It is made up of contributions received and amounts rolled into the fund.

7. Employer contributions

Your member statement will show the contributions MERT has received for you during the last 12 months. If you believe any contributions are not shown on your member statement you should first communicate with your employer. You should note that contributions received for the month of June 2023 are not due to MERT until July 2023 and therefore will appear on your next statement.

8. Transfers/Rollovers received

This is the money (if any) that you have rolled over into MERT from another redundancy fund.

9. Benefit payments

If you were paid any benefits during the reporting period, they will be shown here together with the payment details.
